EXHIBITOR'S HANDBOOK & AGRICULTURE COMPLEX RULES

Bellaire FFA Livestock Show & Auction
April 10th – 13th, 2024

Dear Students and Parents,

Welcome to the 2023-2024 school year and the Bellaire FFA/Bellaire Agriculture Science Department. We look forward to working with new and returning students in our program. Hopefully the changes made in leadership and our commitment to youth development will encourage diverse participation leading to an unprecedented level of student achievement in all aspects of the Program of Activities.

The Agriculture Science Program model consists of three elements: Classroom Instruction, Supervised Agriculture Experience and the FFA Chapter. This is a unique program, and we believe it will be a life-changing experience for you. We offer a variety of opportunities to develop leadership skills as well as experience personal growth along with potential career success throughout your participation.

We look forward to each of you attending as many activities as possible. It is a great way to make new friends and create memories that last a lifetime. Remember, as with any endeavor you pursue, you only get out of this organization what you put into it. We are here to offer guidance and support to each of you. Please do not hesitate to contact one of us if we can be of any assistance. Please also make sure to sign up for our Remind group, Bellaire FFA, with the class code: @bffa23-24 and frequently visit <http://www.Bellaire.FFAnow.org> to view updates, activities, our FFA calendar, and register your name and email!

Quality Counts Program

In 2012, Quality Counts verification became a requirement for all youth exhibiting livestock (market and/or breeding) at county and major livestock shows in Texas (including the Ft. Worth Livestock Show, San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo, Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo, Star of Texas Fair in Austin, San Angelo Livestock Show, Sand hills Stock Show in Odessa, State Fair of Texas in Dallas, and Heart O' Texas Fair in Waco) as well as the Bellaire FFA Livestock Show. The verification process will require junior (those in either 4H and/or FFA) exhibitors to pass an online test that measures their knowledge on quality assurance and character education content items.

The program outcomes clearly demonstrate youth being more knowledgeable of best management practices associated with livestock projects. More importantly, the program's impact has demonstrated positive changes in personal character attributes as well as adoption of livestock best management practices.

Students are able to go online to take the test and become verified. A verification certificate and number will be provided once the exhibitor has successfully passed the verification test. A passing score has been established by the Quality Counts Program as an 80% or better. The verification number assigned to each individual exhibitor will need to be provided at the time of making an official entry into a Texas major livestock show. Exhibitors must complete the exam by midnight Friday, November 3, 2023.

Exhibitors will be able to complete the verification process by going to: <https://www.texaslivestockvalidation.com/qc/qcregister.aspx> and follow the directions on the website. You may also visit our website: www.bellaire.ffa.org to download the Quality Counts Enrollment page which will give you step-by-step directions as to registering, obtaining the proper curriculum, taking the course, taking the test, etc. Test scores will be sent automatically along with a date/time-stamp to the AST's so there is no need to print off the certificate and turn it in.

Bellaire FFA Parent Expectations

At Bellaire FFA, we strive to model safe, civil and productive behavior for our students. As a spectator and active parent of our competitions and shows, this is a reminder of your responsibility to be an appropriate and positive role model.

1. There is no such thing as your student has a "right" to attend any event with the Bellaire FFA Chapter. Participation in the Bellaire FFA Chapter, such as athletics or any other UIL event is considered a "privilege" and opportunity to participate can be denied or refused by the Bellaire Agriculture Science Department. Any parent or spectator who avails themselves of it is expected to conduct themselves accordingly.
2. Remember that when you are at a competition, contest or show to support and encourage all of the members of the Bellaire FFA Chapter who are participating in that particular event. To enjoy the skill and competition of the students not to intimidate or ridicule others who are there competing.
3. Remember that students are learning as they are competing and that mistakes are sometimes made.
4. Praise students in their attempts to improve themselves as students, exhibitors and as people.
5. Learn the rules and regulations of each contest, show, etc. so that you may understand and appreciate why certain situations take place.
6. Respect the decision of the judges and officials of each competition. Remember that they are doing their best to promote a positive experience for all the exhibitors.
7. Be a positive role model at events through your own actions and behaviors.
8. Be an active and supportive parent of the Bellaire FFA Chapter and Alumni (parent) Organization.
9. Keep in mind that while winning is certainly an admirable goal; it is hollow if it comes at the expense of a child, your family and friends, or one's integrity, morals, values, etc.

General Agricultural Science Facility Rules & Regulations

The purpose of the Bellaire FFA Agriculture Facility Complex located at 11611-B Riceville School Road is to provide an extension of the classroom to be utilized for students Supervised Agricultural Experience Programs (SAEP). Houston ISD Rules, Regulations and Student Code of Conduct applies to this facility. In order for all parties to best utilize the Agricultural Science facilities and to ensure the safety of the students, animals, and others on the property the Bellaire FFA Agricultural Science Instructors and school administrators will monitor regulations and operations at the complex. Agriculture Science Instructor(s) and HISD school administrators reserve the right to add, amend and/or modify any rules and/or procedures on an "as needed" basis. The Agricultural Science Teachers (AST) and HISD school administrators will make decisions based on the overall best interest of HISD, Bellaire High School, Bellaire FFA faculty, students and their livestock projects. Neither Houston ISD, Bellaire High School, Bellaire FFA, Bellaire FFA Alumni/Booster Club nor the Bellaire Agricultural Science Teacher(s) as well as any school official will be responsible for injury or death to an animal project. This includes but is not limited to animals housed on HISD property, animals hauled by HISD employees, animals traveling to/from any FFA or non-FFA related event, etc. (Securing insurance on livestock projects, equipment, trailers, etc. is the owners responsibility and is highly encouraged.)

All participants will comply with the following regulations and criteria.

1. As a Houston ISD facility supporting school-related activities, the most recent Houston ISD Student Handbook and the Houston ISD Discipline Management Plan and Student Code of Conduct will apply.
2. For security purposes, the facility will be open between 5:00 a.m. and 9:00 p.m unless prior approval from an Agricultural Science Teacher is received. NO EXCEPTIONS!!
3. Only market or breeding livestock project(s) owned and eligible to show by an active Bellaire FFA member in good standing for our Bellaire FFA Show may be housed at the Bellaire FFA Agriculture Complex. To become a member of the Bellaire FFA chapter students MUST complete a membership form, pay their yearly FFA dues to the Ag Science teachers and be enrolled in at least one (1) Agriculture Science course for the 2023-2024 school year.
(Note: Junior FFA members in grades 3rd-8th will not be enrolled in an Agriculture Science course.)
4. In order for Bellaire FFA students to house Harris Co. Fair and other major livestock show projects at the Bellaire FFA Agriculture Facilities, the following items must be followed.
 - The student must be a dues paid active Bellaire FFA member in good standing throughout the duration of the project.
 - The member must validate any Harris County or major show animal under Bellaire FFA.
 - If a member is going to raise and exhibit any market or breeding cattle, swine, goat, sheep, rabbit, etc. projects for Harris County or major shows, the animal must be paid for through their respective breeder before the animal will be signed and validated by the AST(s) under Bellaire FFA.
 - If a member is going to raise and exhibit any Harris County or major show poultry, the poultry must be purchased through Bellaire FFA and the AST will process the paperwork and payment accordingly. (unless otherwise stated by their respective show)
 - A member must complete all Harris Co. Fair and major show requirements, paperwork, entry forms, entry fees, etc. through Bellaire FFA and exhibit the animal under Bellaire FFA.

- Projects purchased, validated, entered with intent to show, etc. under any club, group or organization other than Bellaire FFA will not be housed or raised under Bellaire FFA. This includes but is not limited to Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Services (4-H).
- All facility usage fees must be paid in full before a project will be allowed to be housed at the Bellaire FFA Agriculture Facilities if space prevails.
- Harris Co. Fair and other major show livestock projects are not guaranteed a stall, pen, pasture, etc. Students and parents are advised to obtain a housing facility All local Bellaire FFA Livestock Show projects take precedence over any county or major show project.

Breeding heifer/cow Livestock Animal Activity Fees are to be paid in full ($240 per head) no later than 4pm, August 25, 2023.

6. The Agricultural Science Teachers will monitor all guidelines and criteria closely. Ethical and humane treatment of animals and violation of regulations will not be compromised.
7. Students must be an active Bellaire FFA member in good standing to utilize the Bellaire FFA Livestock facilities. Guests must have prior permission to enter the complex and MUST be accompanied by the Bellaire FFA member at all times. Besides feeding and watering your animal(s) daily, students should give their project(s) regular daily exercise and keep up with proper grooming, rinsing, and bathing. Animals need to be dewormed regularly as per instructions on the type of medication label used. Any animal not being cared for in the proper manner and neglected will be removed from the Bellaire Agriculture Facility Complex at the owner's expense. Steps followed when failure to maintain proper care of animal project and/or housing of the animal are:

First offense – The student will receive a letter from the AST, which constitutes a typed up formal warning and the problem must be resolved within two (2) days on the date of the letter to the satisfaction of the Agricultural Science Instructors. The letter will be signed by both the student and the parent, filed in the agriculture department's office and a copy of the letter will be made available to campus administrators.

Second Offense – Agriculture Instructors will follow the same steps as listed above in the first offense however, this offense will be considered a final warning.

Third Offense - The student will be evicted from the Bellaire Agriculture Facility Complex and both student and student's legal guardian will be notified. Animal owners have 72 hrs to remove their project(s) off the Bellaire Agriculture Facility Complex at owner's expense.

Fourth Offense – If the animal has not been removed from the barn within 72 hours of eviction and Agriculture Instructors have documented that both student and parent have been notified, the animal(s) will be taken to a local livestock auction facility and sold at auction value. Heifers no longer eligible to compete at approved FFA sanctioned shows will ONLY be housed in the pasture and will NOT be given a pen/stalling space under the barn. If students are eligible to receive their American FFA Degree and their project does NOT conflict with other students breeding or market projects the Agriculture Science Instructor(s) reserve the right to amend this rule on an "as needed" basis.
12. If a student becomes INELIGIBLE to show their market project for a specific show, he or she will have 5 days, from the day they became ineligible, to remove his or her animal from the Bellaire Agriculture Complex. If the project is NOT removed by the end of the 5th day the animal(s) will be taken to a local livestock auction facility and sold at auction value. If the animal was sponsored by a scramble or non-profit organization, any residual funds (after all outstanding dues and fees are paid) shall be returned to that organization. If the animal was not purchased by a scramble or non-profit organization, any residual funds (after outstanding dues and fees are paid) will be donated to the Bellaire FFA Chapter.
13. If a student is evicted from the facility, he/she will not be able to house any project(s) at the Bellaire FFA Agriculture Facilities in the future nor allowed back on the premises for the remaining school year.
14. All manure and feedstuffs must be properly disposed of in the approved designated areas.
15. Tack rooms are to be kept neat and clean. Any feed, hay, tack, etc need to be kept inside the owner's feed/tack box. If the owner does not have room to keep it inside

20. At the conclusion of the Bellaire FFA Livestock Show, all market animals will be removed from the barn & students will clean pens out within one (1) day following the show and sale. Only exception to this rule is if a processing issue arises with broiler exhibitors. Those broiler exhibitors MUST then notify the Ag Science Advisors of the issue and if necessary, will have no more than 14 days following the show to remove all broilers from the premises and completely clean their poultry pen area. Students will NOT receive their Bellaire FFA Livestock Show and Auction checks until their pen(s) and feed/tack box(es) are cleaned and all items are removed from the premises.
21. At the conclusion of any county or major market livestock show, animals will be removed and pens will be cleaned out within five (5) days after exhibiting the animal at the designated show. If a student does not clean out the pen within five (5) days, a fine of one hundred dollars ($100.00) will be assessed for not cleaning the pen and the student will not be allowed to stall ANY animal at the facilities the following year.
22. Animals are to be washed in their designated species washing areas only. Alternative washing locations may be approved by the agriculture advisor if a need arises.
23. At all times, students are to keep their projects in their designated barn. AT NO TIME, are students allowed to take their projects into another barn unless asked to do so by an Agriculture Science Instructor. This rule is for safety and health concerns. Broilers and turkeys should remain in the poultry barn, swine in the swine barn, etc. Swine should be walked, washed, practiced showing, etc. within the fenced area of the designated swine barn. When multiple species are housed in the same barn, exhibitors should take extreme caution walking and caring for their animal's so those projects do not harm themselves or other's projects. Agriculture Science Instructor(s) reserve the right to amend this rule on an "as needed" basis.

24. ALL students, siblings, parents/guardians, etc. should respect the value of the Bellaire FFA Agricultural Science Facilities and all property housed on it. Anyone found to be involved in the act of defacing Bellaire FFA/Bellaire FFA Alumni/HISD property, equipment, vehicles, trailers, etc. in any manner will result in an IMMEDIATE dismissal from the facilities. If an accident does occur those involved are expected to notify the Ag Science Instructor(s) immediately, otherwise the incident will be considered malicious.

Safety of the entire complex must be a top priority of all who use the Bellaire Agriculture Complex. Gate codes should NOT be given to non-Bellaire FFA members or to those members who DO NOT have a current project housed at the Bellaire FFA facilities.

IMPORTANT UPDATED PROCEDURES

FIRE PREVENTION MEASURES AT THE BELLAIRE AGRICULTURE COMPLEX

The following fire prevention precautions at the agricultural facility during extended cold weather below 50 degrees. The directives are as follows:

- No heaters which have a flame or burn fuel (no propane or similar heaters);
- No space heaters;
- Heat lamps must be placed so that they do not contact wood, fabric (tarps), or other combustible materials;
- Heat lamps should be installed securely above the reach of the animals and so that the lamp cannot fall into the bedding material;
- Only grounded (three prong) heavy gauge (rated for 15 to 20 amps) extension cords approved for outdoor use should be used.

As a result of small fires in the past, additional protective measures are now in place. The new minimum safety standards for heat lamp usage include:

1. In addition to the shroud on the back side of the lamp, any heat lamp used in the facility must have a guard over the face of the lamp. These are usually metal wire mesh guards that allow the infrared light (heat) to radiate but prevent accidental contact with the bulb.
2. Lamps must be placed high on the side fence of the pen or on the gate or gate post. Lamps may not be placed on the pens adjoining the outer wall of the barn.
3. Lamps must have two (2) independent anchor points. Mount a clip on wherever they are installed. In addition to the clamp, the lamp must be wire, chain, metal carabiner, or heavy gauge zip-tie to the pen rail. If the lamp is not clamped onto the rail, it must have two anchor points (for example: two zip-ties, or a zip-tie and carabiner).
4. If possible, lamps must be plugged directly into the outlet. Extension cords must be grounded, heavy gauge extension cords approved for outdoor use extension cord.

Heat lamps should be used only when weather forecasts indicate weather BELOW 50 DEGREES! If there is a need for the heat lamp when temperatures are over 50 degrees, the student should explain the need to the Bellaire Agriculture Science Instructor(s). Lamps may remain installed during mild temperatures, but should be unplugged to reduce electrical power use and control expenses.

Lamp Permit System

The Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) recommends the use of permit systems when an identified hazard cannot be reasonably engineered out of the workplace. There is no reasonable (cost effective) engineering solution to the fire hazard situation in the agricultural barns. Animal bedding material is usually straw or wood chips, which are combustible. All the barns other than the hog barn are normal barn construction with timber and wood framing. Therefore, administrative control over heat sources in the barn is a prudent alternative control measure. Students will inspect the lamps to ensure they are safe each time they visit the barn to care for their animal. Failure to inspect and verify that the lamps are and remain compliant with the standards will result in the removal of the lamp until all safety violations are corrected.

General Rules
